

Spanish Episcopal Church

Anglican Church of San Fulgencio

Welcome

Wherever you are on your spiritual journey, please know that you are most welcome here.

The first thing you notice in church, is that people are speaking English. That is because we are an English-speaking congregation of the Spanish Episcopal Church, called in Spanish, Iglesia Española Reformada Episcopal (IERE). The whole of Spain is its diocese, and it has over 40 congregations.

The Spanish Episcopal Church was organized in 1868, and since 1980 has been under the charge of the Archbishop of Canterbury. It belongs to the the family of churches called the Anglican Communion. We are under the care of Bishop Carlos, who permits us to follow the liturgy of the Church of England.

The next thing you notice, is that we gather in a Roman Catholic church. Due to the kindness and generosity of Don Antonio, the parish priest of San Fulgencio, we are granted permission to use the side chapel for our Anglican services.

We offer worship on Sunday, alternating between Holy Communion and Morning Prayer. During the week, we have an informal lay-led service (non-Communion) called 'Worship on Wednesday.'

We are blessed that our life as a Christian community can be lived out in this beautiful sacred space, and we are blessed that you are here to share in worship.

I was glad when they said unto me,
'Let us go into the house of the Lord.'

~ Psalm 122:1
